Review of FFH Main Campus transfer and other documents that include language pertaining to the uses and disposition of the property

Rob Sibley provided access to his cache of documents pertaining to the State transfer of the Fairfield Hills property, summarizing the content of the various documents and calling out additional documents, not currently available, that may be of interest.

Doug and Deb reviewed about 5 documents specifically related to the Main Campus, provided by Rob Sibley and the First Selectman's office, dating from 1994 through 2004. Further work is required to access and review other documents that may include stipulations related to uses and disposition, potentially placed on the Town during the transfer.

Public Participation

None

The meeting ended at 3:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Deborra Zukowski
