

1 in 4 Homes in Connecticut

Tests High for Radon

Radon is an odorless, radioactive gas that is common in Connecticut. It can enter the ground floors of your home from the soil. Radon kills 58 people each day and is the second leading cause of lung cancer.

There is something you can do. Test for radon today. Testing is fast and easy.

2023-2024 Radon Program Partnership

